Greater Participation for a Stronger Democracy

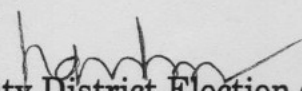

CIRCULAR

There are a number of instances of the requests made by the various Govt. employees whose names have been proposed to perform the duties in the ensuing Panchayat Elections for cancellation of their election related assignments on one pretext or another.

The issue stands discussed with the worthy District Election Officer who desired that no employee shall be granted station leave permission after 31st Jan 2018. Those employees whose Station Leave Permissions have already been sanctioned are directed to report to their respective offices by 1st of Feb. 2018.

In case of some urgency on account of illness / medical reasons, the Controlling Officers / HODs shall furnish a detailed report in the matter along with the medical certificates to take further decision.

By the Order of District Election officer/Deputy Commissioner, Leh

Deputy District Election officer,
Leh
